A case of successful endovascular treatment of post-traumatic cava-aorta fistula.

Speaker's name: Timur Khafizov
Disclosure

Speaker's name: Timur Khafizov

☑️ I do not have any potential conflict of interest
Patient history

- A 55-years old male
- Stabbed in 1993
- Symptoms: pain in the right half of the chest, shortness of breath during moderate physical load, weakness, dizziness. Noise, shake in the right half of the chest.
- CT data was detected aorto-cava fistula in 2014.
CT-angiography data
Procedural steps/equipment

- Right femoral approach (artery, vein)
- right radial approach
- 10 Fr delivery system (vein)
- occluder 24 mm
- 0.035 stiff wire
- 0.035 hydrophilic wire
- diagnostic catheter
Angiography data
Angiography data
The delivery system in the aorta
Angiography data before implantation
Occluder implantation
Final result
CT angiography data
(after 1 year)
CT angiography data (3D reconstruction, after 1 year)
A case of successful endovascular treatment of post-traumatic cava-aorta fistula.

Speaker's name: Timur Khafizov